STAY

With options from campgrounds to hotels to locally owned bed and breakfasts, you will find accommodations to fit your style. Our area boasts lakeside mountain cabins perfect for a romantic getaway for two, as well as cabins to fit the whole family! Have a RV? Jefferson County has three RV parks to choose from—each one unique in its own way.

DAY 1

BEGIN YOUR DAY IN HISTORIC DOWNTOWN DANDRIDGE! AS THE SECOND OLDEST CITY IN THE STATE, DANDRIDGE IS RICH IN HISTORY. IT'S EASY TO SPEND THE DAY PERUSING THE LOCAL SHOPS, CHECKING OUT THE HISTORIC LANDMARKS, AS WELL AS ENJOYING SOME TRULY SOUTHERN DINING.

EAT

Eat like a local and grab a "Bible burger" and milkshake from Tinsley-Bible Drug Co., an old fashioned soda fountain. Need some coffee or a refreshing beverage? Stop into Dandridge Brewing Company located inside one of the four original taverns of the city. Looking for something a little nicer? Head across the bridge to Angelo's at the Point for some lakeside dining with salads, pork chops and steaks, and, of course, seafood.

PLAY

Take time to explore the downtown area. With several shops in a city block distance of each other, you are bound to find the perfect souvenir or treat-yourself gift. Built in 1792, be sure to stop into the historic Courthouse and take a tour of the history museum and archives. If you are around in the summer or early fall, you may be able to catch a street festival or music event. Oh—and don't forget to take in the view of Douglas Lake from the dyke that saved Dandridge!

DAY 2

TAKE TO THE WATER WAYS ON A BOAT RENTAL, GRAB YOUR ROD AND GO FISHING, SCHEDULE A TEE TIME, OR JUST GO ON A LONG SCENIC DRIVE, THERE'S SO MUCH TO DO IN THE LAKESIDE OF THE SMOKIES!

EAT

No need to leave the lake to satisfy your hunger, the shorelines of Jefferson County offer many lakeside eateries. If you're spending the day on Cherokee Lake, stop by Off the Hook Bar and Grill for good food and even better times with live music, karaoke, and trivia nights throughout the week. Douglas Lake has Cowboys on the Water which offers a variety of menu items guaranteed to make the entire family happy. Remember Angelo's on the Point? If you didn't take advantage before or just want a second helping, drive on over and dock your boat!

PLAY

It's vacation, relax! If you're looking for a day out on one of the lakes, head to one of the many area marinas for boat, kayak, paddleboard, and other watersport rentals. Once you're all situated, grab your sunscreen and have a good time! Want something a little less active on the water? Cherokee and Douglas Lakes have some of the best fishing in East Tennessee, so grab your tackle box—the fish are guaranteed to be biting.

Not a fan of the water? No problem! Whether you are a novice or pro, you are bound to enjoy a round of golf at one of the five area golf courses. Each one with its own attractive views. What about a nice drive through the scenic highways and byways? Take to the open road on one of the 5 driving trails within Jefferson County. With mountain views, quilt squares, and historic landmarks, discover the charm of the area while you weave through the small towns and country lanes of Appalachia.

A VISIT TO JEFFERSON COUNTY WOULDN'T BE COMPLETE WITHOUT TAKING IN THE HISTORY OF THE AREA. START YOUR DAY BY VISITING THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR GRAVEYARD OFF THE SQUARE IN DANDRIDGE THEN CHECK OUT THE DYKE THAT SAVED DANDRIDGE DURING THE ONSET OF THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY. HEAD TO JEFFERSON CITY TO SEE THE HISTORIC MOSSY CREEK DISTRICT, HOME TO THE EARLY SETTLERS OF THE COUNTY. IF YOU'RE LUCKY, YOU MAY EVEN CATCH A HISTORIC WALKING TOUR WITH THE COUNTY HISTORIAN!

But that's not all! Did you know Jefferson County is home to the famed Bush's Beans? Ride over to Chestnut Hill to visit the Bush's Visitor Center. Take a tour of the historical museum and learn how the company was started, as well as see how it developed over time. Bring your appetite because the Bush's Family Café is known for its homemade Southern specialties, including a delicious pinto bean pie!
