CHEROKEE & DOUGLAS LAKES

In the foothills of the Great Smoky Mountains, located conveniently off of Interstates I-81 and I-40, Cherokee Lake and Douglas Lake offer breathtaking scenery, great water recreational activities, and beautiful lakeside lodging.

There are many ways to enjoy the water year-round with pontoon, jet-ski and boat rentals as well as guided fishing trips. Plan your lake vacation getaway at a private cabin with your very own secluded cove and boat dock, or bring your RV to one of the many camping and RV resorts.

DRIVING TRAILS

Scenic Driving Trails

Rocky Top Trail

Smoky Peaks to Crafts and Creeks

Wind your way through the foothills of East TN and enjoy stops such as Bush Bean's Visitor Center and Historic Downtown Dandridge!

Sunny Side Trail

The Early Country

Discover the rich history of our small towns and country lanes while on the backroads of Appalachia. You'll make your way through Jefferson County and discover the roads that lead to Douglas and Cherokee Lakes, as well as our towns of Jefferson City, White Pine, and Dandridge.

White Lightning Trail

Thunder Roads to Rebels

This trail weaves its way along the moonshine-running corridor through the East Tennessee Valley—from the Cumberland Gap to the foothills of the Smoky Mountains.

East Tennessee Crossing National Scenic Byway

East Tennessee Crossing, Hwy. 25E, stretches 83 miles in Tennessee and has been used since prehistoric times by pioneer travelers, hunters, and tourists alike.

Appalachian Quilt Trail

The history surrounding the Appalachian Quilt Squares among locals is rich, and volunteers have chosen the squares based upon traditional designs found on quilts within the Appalachian region. We have over 60 quilt blocks throughout the area and taking time to visit them has become a popular pastime.
